

ECE Apprenticeship Program

Eligibility Requirements:

Employer Sponsorship

Tuition & Fees

- Employers pay a portion of the tuition--- T.E.A.C.H pays 95%. The ECE degree costs $12,000. Each apprentice pays $500 and the employer pays $500 for the entire degree.
- All Apprentices are T.E.A.C.H scholars and get reimbursed for books and travel.
- Employers receive funding from T.E.A.C.H to off-set the cost of classroom coverage while Apprentice is attending classes and/or tutoring sessions during work hours.

Classroom Coverage

Employers provide coverage for:

- Weekly coaching sessions (Coach/ Apprentice at the center)
- Monthly Master Classes Monthly Mentoring Session

Employers provide an on-site Coach who has at least an AA degree for each candidate

1:1 Ratio for Apprentice / Coach pairs

Employer Sponsorship

Classroom Coverage

Employers release candidate/ Apprentices for weekly study groups/ tutoring session or monthly conference calls as needed

Employer Sponsorship

Wage Increases

- Employers give each Apprentice up to 4 wage increases (the employer decides the amount) as apprentice completes coursework and satisfactorily meets on the job learning hours/competencies
- Monthly payroll hours are submitted to Training Fund for each candidate who is accepted as an Apprentice

Apprentice Agreement

Course Selection

- Apprentice agree to take up to 2 courses per semester and earn a C or better in each course

Competency Completion

- Apprentices complete competencies each week with the help of on-site Coach

Apprenticeship Paperwork and Meetings

- Apprentices submit apprenticeship paperwork on time each semester
- Apprentices attend all apprenticeship meetings, including academic advising sessions

For More Information Contact

- Nikia Brown at nbrown@1199ctraining.org
- Valry Leroy at vleroy@1199ctraining.org